It's 'Texans Only' For Embassy Tour

A new and different embassy tour is planned for December 6 and for Texans only.

The embassies of France, Mexico and Spain will open their doors to members of the Texas State Society here. Reason is that each of these country's flags have flown over the State and Texans claim that much of their culture comes from these nations.

The Mexican Embassy will be open from 3 to 4 p.m. and a group of 15 Texas congressional wives, headed by Mrs. Walter Rogers, will point out things of interest in the absence of Ambassador Tello.

Spanish Ambassador Arellano will meet the group personally at his Embassy from 4 to 5 o'clock.

sonally at his Embassy from 4 to 5 o'clock.

At this Embassy there is the promise of a taste of Spanish wine, the showing of Spanish films and a display of Spanish art as well as a tour of the Embassy.

Assisting the Ambassador here will be Director of the Central Intelligence Agency and Mrs. C. P. Cabell and Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. Roy Richard Rubottom.

French Ambassador Alphand will also be on hand at his Embassy to greet his Texas guests from 5 to 6. At this spot France's famed product, champagne, will be served. Assisting at this Embassy will be Mr. and Mrs. Dale Miller.

The tour, named "Texas Heritage Embassy Tour," will be open to adults only and there will be a small charge for tickets to defray expenses.

Tickets should be ordered no later than December 1. Requests should be sent to Mr. Tom Bartle, secretary-treasurer of the society.
